

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

In re:

Robert Earl Schulz

No. 19-11236

FINAL ORDER

On December 9, 2019, the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board (“Board”) issued a Consent to Revocation Order revoking Robert Earl Schulz’s license to practice law. See In the Matter of Robert Earl Schulz, VSB Docket No. 20-070-116156 (Va. 2019). Mr. Schulz did not report his consent to revocation to this Court as required by Rule 83.2(e) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims (“RCFC”).

Mr. Schulz has been a member of this Court’s bar since June 11, 1979 and has no pending cases. Under Rule 83.2(c)(3), an attorney admitted to practice before this Court may be disciplined on the grounds of disbarment on consent or resignation from the bar of another court while an investigation into an allegation of misconduct is pending. In addition, under Rule 83.2(c)(4), an attorney may be disciplined on the grounds of failure to comply with the terms of Rule 83.2, including failure to notify the Court in accordance with Rule 83.2(e).

On March 5, 2020, the Court issued an order directing Mr. Schulz to show cause within 30 days why he should not be disbarred from practice before the United States Court of Federal Claims. ECF No. 3. The Order to Show Cause further stated that if no response was received, Mr. Schulz would be permanently disbarred from practice. Id. To date, Mr. Schulz has not responded to the Order to Show Cause. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that Robert Earl Schulz shall be permanently disbarred from the practice of law before the United States Court of Federal Claims, effective, nunc pro tunc, December 9, 2019, the date of the revocation of his license by the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board. See RCFC 83.2(h)(2). The filing of any petition for reinstatement will be governed by RCFC 83.2(k)(1).
