

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 99-121C

(Filed April 11, 2003)

*****

FORD MOTOR COMPANY,	*	Wartime cost-plus-fixed-fee contract;
	*	Disputes Clause; Contract Settlement
Plaintiff,	*	Act of 1944; liability for CERCLA
	*	costs.
v.	*
	*
THE UNITED STATES,	*
	*
Defendant.	*

*****

Charles J. Cooper, Washington, D.C., attorney of record for the plaintiff, Michael W. Kirk and Margaret A. Ryan, of counsel, Washington, D.C.

Lawrence N. Minch, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., with whom was Assistant Attorney General Robert D. McCallum, Jr., David M. Cohen, Director, for the defendant.

OPINION ERRATA

MEROW, Senior Judge.

Several corrections are required with respect to the Slip Opinion in this matter, filed April 1, 2003, as follows:

- (1) On page 12, the "March 23, 1988" dates listed for the commencement of the suits in the Eastern District of Michigan shall be corrected to "March 23, 1998;"

(2) On page 17, the initial portion of the sentence commencing on line 10 of the first paragraph shall be corrected to read, “thus plaintiff remains free now to pursue its claims with the contracting officer . . . .”

(3) On page 19, the reference to Ford’s “January 20, 1944” letter in the second paragraph shall be corrected to “January 20, 1994.”

---

James F. Merow
Senior Judge