UNPUBLISHED DECISION ON FEES¹

Thomas Mester, Esq., Nurenberg, Paris, Heller & McCarthy Co., LPA, Cleveland, OH, for Petitioner;

Lisa A. Watts, Esq., U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

Petitioner Brittany Cordes filed her stipulated application for attorneys' fees and costs on January 14, 2011. The Court awards the amount to which respondent has not objected.

Ms. Cordes claimed that the influenza vaccine caused an adverse reaction and she received compensation based upon the parties' stipulation. Decision, filed September 23, 2010. Because Ms. Cordes received compensation, she is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

All decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, the person submitting the information has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document's disclosure. If the special master agrees that the identified material fits within the categories listed above, the special master shall redact such material from public access. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B); Vaccine Rule 18(b).

Ms. Cordes seeks a total of $19,828.00 in attorneys' fees and $8,574.59 in costs for petitioner's counsel. Additionally, Ms. Cordes filed a statement of costs in compliance with General Order No. 9, stating that she incurred no litigation expenses while pursuing this claim. Respondent stated that she had no objection to this application for attorneys' fees and costs.

After reviewing the request, the court awards a check made payable to petitioner and petitioner's attorney in the amount of $28,402.59 for attorneys' fees and other litigation costs. The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter.

The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Christian J. Moran
Special Master

² Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
