DECISION

DISMISSING PETITION AND AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ¹

On April 11, 2005, petitioner filed a Short-Form Autism Petition for Vaccine Compensation in the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (“the Program”),² on behalf of his minor child, Benjamin Selfridge (“Benjamin”), which adopted the Master Autism Petition for Vaccine Compensation. The information in the record, however, does not show entitlement to an award under the Program.

On October 10, 2011, petitioner moved for a decision on the merits of the petition, acknowledging that insufficient evidence exists to demonstrate entitlement to compensation.

To receive compensation under the Program, petitioners must prove either 1) that Benjamin suffered a “Table Injury” – i.e., an injury falling within the Vaccine Injury Table – corresponding to one of Benjamin’s vaccinations, or 2) that Benjamin suffered an injury that was actually caused by a vaccine. See §§ 13(a)(1)(A) and 11(c)(1). Examination of the record does not disclose any evidence that Benjamin suffered a

² The Program comprises Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 et seq. (hereinafter “Vaccine Act” or “the Act”). Hereafter, individual section references will be to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa of the Act.

“Table Injury.” Further, the record does not contain a medical expert’s opinion or any other persuasive evidence indicating that Benjamin’s alleged injury was vaccine-caused.

Under the Vaccine Act, a petitioner may not be awarded compensation based on the petitioner’s claims alone. Rather, the petition must be supported by either the medical records or by a medical opinion. § 13 (a)(1). In this case, the record does not contain medical records or a medical opinion sufficient to demonstrate that the vaccinee, Benjamin Selfridge, was injured by a vaccine. For these reasons, in accordance with § 12(d)(3)(A), the petitioner’s claim for compensation is denied and this case is dismissed for insufficient proof.

Petitioner has also filed an unopposed motion for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs in this case. Petitioner is entitled to reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to §§ 15(b) and (e)(1). Respondent has reviewed the motion and does not object. Petitioner seeks attorneys’ fees and costs in the amount of $5,870.35. In lieu of filing a Vaccine General Order 9 statement, petitioner’s counsel noted the out of pocket costs that petitioner personally incurred.

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and upon a reasonable basis. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $5,870.35³ as follows:

- a lump sum of $5,600.00 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner’s counsel, Gallagher and Gallagher Law Firm LLC, for petitioner’s attorney fees and costs, and
- a lump sum of $270.35 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, for his personal litigation costs.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, “advanced costs” as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec’y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party’s filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
