ZANE, Special Master.

On February 23, 2012, the parties in the above-captioned case filed a Stipulation of Attorneys' Fees and Costs (Stipulation) memorializing their agreement as to the appropriate amount of attorneys' fees and costs in this case. Pursuant to the stipulation of the parties, Petitioner requests a total award of $22,152.42. In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner's counsel represents that Petitioner incurred no personal litigation costs. Although Respondent did not concede the claim, the parties, nonetheless, settled the matter, and an award of compensation was made. The undersigned finds that the stipulated amount of $22,152.42, in attorneys' fees and costs, is reasonable based on the stage at which this matter was settled. Based on the request's reasonableness and pursuant to Vaccine Rule 13, the undersigned GRANTS the parties' request as outlined in the Stipulation. The judgment shall reflect that Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs as follows:

in a check made payable jointly to Petitioner (Louis F. Friedman) and Petitioner's counsel (F. John Caldwell, Jr., of the Maglio, Christopher & Toale Law Firm), in the amount of $22,152.42.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.²
