UNPUBLISHED DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On May 17, 2013, the parties in the above-captioned case filed a Stipulation of Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Stipulation") memorializing their agreement as to the appropriate amount of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $20,491.38 plus $4,338.61 to Petitioners for costs incurred in this case. Thus, Petitioners request a total award of $24,829.99, to which Respondent does not object. Petitioners' counsel represents that Petitioners incurred $4,338.61 personal litigation costs. In accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e), the undersigned awards the amount to which Respondent does not object.

Petitioners, Katy Garcia and Michael Garcia, alleged that their daughter, K.G., suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome, as a consequence of her receipt of the trivalent influenza ("flu") vaccine, which vaccine is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table, 42 C.F.R § 100.3(a), and which she received on November 6, 2009. Petitioners also alleged K.G. had residual effects of this injury for more than six months and that Petitioners have not otherwise received compensation for such injuries. A decision awarding compensation based upon the parties' stipulation was entered on November 19, 2012. [ECF No. 39].

Although Respondent did not concede the claim, the parties, nonetheless, settled the matter, and an award of compensation was made. Because, Petitioners had been awarded compensation, Petitioners are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). The undersigned also finds that the stipulated amount of $20,491.38, in attorneys' fees and costs plus $4,338.61 for Petitioners' personal litigation costs, is reasonable based on the stage at which this matter was settled. Based on the request's reasonableness and pursuant to Vaccine Rule 13, the undersigned GRANTS the parties' request as outlined in the Stipulation. The judgment shall reflect that Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs as follows:

in a check made payable jointly to Petitioners (Katy Garcia and Michael Garcia, as parents and natural guardians of K.G., a minor) and Petitioner's counsel (Diana Lynn Stadelnikas of the law firm Maglio Christopher and Toale), the amount of $20,491.38. That check should be mailed directly to the law firm Maglio, Christopher and Toale, 1605 Main Street, Suite 710, Sarasota, Florida 34236.

in a check made payable to Petitioners (Katy Garcia and Michael Garcia, as parents and natural guardians of K.G., a minor), the amount of $4,338.61.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.²
