U.S. COURT OF
FEDERAL CLAIMS

In re:

Charles A. Murray

No. 19-11231

FINAL ORDER

On May 30, 2019, the Supreme Court of Florida ordered that attorney Charles A. Murray be suspended from the practice of law for one hundred eighty (180) days. Fla. Bar v. Murray, No. SC18-1249 (Fla. May 30, 2019). On June 10, 2019, Mr. Murray notified the Court of his suspension by letter. ECF No. 1.

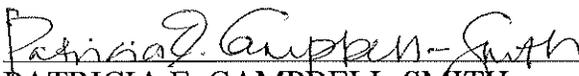

Mr. Murray has been a member of this Court's bar since March 15, 1996. Under Rule 83.2(c)(2) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims ("RCFC"), an attorney admitted to practice before this Court may be disciplined for an act or omission that results in the attorney's disbarment or suspension by another court. Reciprocal suspension is the presumed discipline for an act or omission that results in an attorney's suspension by another court. RCFC 83.2(g)(7)(B).

On September 6, 2019, the Court issued an order directing Mr. Murray to show cause within thirty (30) days why the Court should not impose discipline equivalent to that imposed by the Supreme Court of Florida. ECF No. 4. The order to show cause further stated that if no response was received, Mr. Murray would be indefinitely suspended from practice before the United States Court of Federal Claims. Id. To date, Mr. Murray has not responded to the Order to Show Cause. Therefore,

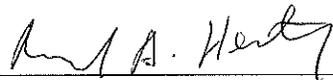

IT IS ORDERED that Charles A. Murray is indefinitely suspended from the practice of law before the United States Court of Federal Claims effective on the date of his suspension by the Supreme Court of Florida. See RCFC 83.2(h)(4). The filing of any petition for reinstatement will be governed by RCFC 83.2(k)(1).
